

Interning with The Resource Group as an International Student

With a deep desire to embody our ABIDE hallmarks, our internship program is open to all students who are currently legally authorized to work in the United States, including F-1 visa holders.

Additional Details

- Students attending school in the United States on a visa may participate in our 12-week internship program!
- We can provide the required cooperative agreement / acceptance letter required for Curricular Practical Training (CPT).
- The Resource Group does not have the ability to provide sponsorship because our full-time do not that satisfy the requirements of the H1-B program.
- At this time we are unable to provide part-time or full-time opportunities for our international students following the internship program.
 - This includes opportunities during the Optional Practical Training (OPT) period due to the finite timeframe of the approval.

Learn more about ABIDE

Ascension, The Resource Group's parent organization, launched its new Diversity and Inclusion framework called ABIDE in 2022. ABIDE is built upon the hallmarks of Appreciation, Belongingness, Inclusivity, Diversity, and Equity.

The ABIDE Framework helps to uncover what Ascension itself needs to do in order to optimally live out our commitment to both justice and mercy, with a focus on our own associates. The ABIDE Framework is essentially born of our recognition that we must embody for our associates the change we want to see in the world. The ABIDE Framework describes how we as an organization aspire to treat our associates in light of our Mission and identity as a healing ministry of the Catholic Church. ABIDE is an expression of how we live our Mission and Values in an inward-facing way, just as the principles of our Catholic identity, our Values and the Catholic moral tradition have always informed and animated how Ascension lives its Mission in society for the betterment of those we serve.
